Dear Dr. Hashim:

It is with sincerest gratitude that I write to acknowledge the recent $1,000 gift from The Council for Tobacco Research to our School of Medicine. In accordance with your instructions, this gift will be used to help defray expenses associated with the Fifth Annual Vascular Biology and Hypertension Research Symposium to be held in October.

We are deeply gratified by CTR's interest in our programs. It is through generous private support such as this that UAB is able to maintain its position at the forefront in research and advanced medical technology.

Please accept my personal thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Charles A. McCallum, D.M.D., M.D.
